

About us

Islington Play Association is a vibrant, proactive children's charity that runs Paradise Park Children's Centre, six adventure playgrounds and a number of play focused projects across the London borough of Islington.

Our aim is simple—to create, provide, improve and protect places for the children of Islington to play.

Can I get involved?

If you think children's play is as important as we do then we want you to volunteer with us.

Community volunteers play a vital role in supporting our staff to keep the walking bus running.

If you would like to help out please get in touch.

Walking Bus

Where children's right to play comes first!

What is a walking bus?

The Walking Bus is a service operated by Islington Play Association with support from local schools and funding from Islington's Clinical Commissioning Group and The Mayor's Office for Policing And Crime (MOPAC).

The scheme will see staff from IPA's adventure playgrounds pickup children from local schools Tuesday - Friday at 3.30pm and walk them to their local adventure playground.

Where does it run?

1. Copenhagen Primary School to Crumbles Castle Adventure Playground.
2. Robert Blair Primary School to Lumpy Hill Adventure Playground.

For updates and to find out if a walking bus will be coming to your child's school, visit:

What are the benefits?

- Health benefits through regular walking.
- Chance to make new friends and connect with others in the area.
- Improved awareness of road safety.
- Reassurance that children will arrive safely at their local adventure playground.
- Access to play which is vital to children's healthy development.

How do I book?

Before children can use the walking bus a parent or carer must complete and return a consent form, which can be picked up at the adventure playground.
